

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

The Power Of A Lie

Many think of a lie as something that is not very harmful. Most even believe that you cannot get through life without telling at least a few "harmless" lies. The fact is, one of Satan's many deceptions is downplaying the power of lies.

Matthew 28:13-15 says, "Tell people, His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep'...this story has been spread among the Jews to this day." One of the greatest lies spread in the last two thousand years was that Jesus never arose from the grave. Based on the Scriptural evidence, this seems like such a simple lie that it should be easy to disprove. However, this is one of the most prevalent lies believed by some of the biggest false religions in the world, including Islam.

Lies are just as easily spread today. The sad fact is that it is far easier for a lie to spread than the truth. Lying is a sin, and Satan is very good at it (Gen. 3:4; Jn. 8:44; Rev. 21:8). Do not make the mistake of thinking that your lies do not have power. Do not allow the lies of the world persuade you to follow Satan rather than Christ (Col. 2:8).
