

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

Do You Have A Price?

When we study what the Bible says about Judas, we see a man who betrayed Christ for thirty pieces of silver (Matt. 26:14-16). To think of someone doing something like this to the Lord is despicable. How could Judas betray one of his closest friends? The sad fact is that while we recognize Jesus' betrayal to be something terrible, many of us have a price at which we would sell the Lord as well (Prov. 1:19). There are those that decide that working extra overtime to accumulate wealth and riches is more desirable than going to church and serving God (1 Tim. 6:10). There are those that decide to work jobs that require them to lie, steal, or engage in sinful activities such as drinking in order to stay "relevant" in the work-place. Many will desire to accumulate things and spend time focusing on having the nice house and shiny new car and leave God as an afterthought.

The price we demand doesn't have to be of monetary value, however. Some choose family and friends over serving God (Matt. 10:37). Judas' attitude and actions were sinful. What about us? Are we emulating Judas? What is your price for selling Christ?
